MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Regulations Control Staff

SUBJECT: Rescission of CIA Regulation
Personnel Relations

1. CIA Regulation Personnel Relations, provides for the conduct of the personnel relations program and lists certain specialized services available to employees. The responsibility of the Director of Personnel in this connection is stated in Regulation . The policy of maintaining such a program is implicit in this regulation and in Regulation . The listing of specialized services in paragraph B is out of date; currently available services are described in greater detail in proposed Regulation Employee Services, and in various published issuances.

2. We do not consider continuation of Regulation as necessary to the conduct of the personnel relations and employee services activities. Accordingly, it is requested that consideration be given to including it on the next list of rescissions.
